

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, Plaintiff, vs. GERMAN LOPEZ, Defendant.)))))))))	8:07CR247 ORDER
---	---	--

This matter is before the court on the motion for an extension of time by defendant German Lopez (Lopez) (Filing No. 15). Lopez seeks an additional thirty days in which to file pretrial motions in accordance with the progression order (Filing No. 7). Lopez's counsel represents that Lopez will file an affidavit wherein he consents to the motion and acknowledges he understands the additional time may be excludable time for the purposes of the Speedy Trial Act. Lopez's counsel represents that counsel for the government has no objection to the motion. Upon consideration, the motion will be granted.

IT IS ORDERED:

Defendant Lopez's motion for an extension of time (Filing No. 15) is granted. Lopez is given until on or before September 15, 2007, in which to file pretrial motions pursuant to the progression order. The ends of justice have been served by granting such motion and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. The additional time arising as a result of the granting of the motion, i.e., the time between August 17, 2007 and September 15, 2007, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act for the reason defendant's counsel requires additional time to adequately prepare the case, taking into consideration due diligence of counsel, and the novelty and complexity of this case. The failure to grant additional time might result in a miscarriage of justice. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(8)(A) & (B).

DATED this 17th day of August, 2007.

BY THE COURT:

s/ Thomas D. Thalken
United States Magistrate Judge
